

St. Augustine Catholic High School Parent Council Presents...

Money Mentor$™

Do you want to teach your teen money lessons at home?

Money Mentor$™ is a 90-minute ,plain language workshop for parents interested in practical ways to teach money lessons through day-to-day activities in the home. Parents will hear tips and receive information and tools to help support teens as they learn about money, it's value and how to manage it well.

DISCUSSION TOPICS ...

Raising Financially Literate Teens

Tips and tools are shared to help parents to identify 'real life' opportunities for their kids to put their basic math skills into practice today while teaching them to be smart money managers in the future.

-  Understanding Value
-  Smart Spending
-  Regular Savings
-  Budgeting

Allowance

To pay or not to pay? What do kids learn from getting an allowance? The pros and cons of different 'payment' methods are examined and alternative approaches to solving the allowance dilemma are discussed.

Curriculum & Financial Literacy

Parents will hear what is taught, what is not covered in the curriculum and where they can take advantage of 'teachable moments' day-to-day.

PRESENTED BY ...

Tricia Barry,
Money School Canada, Executive Director

Tricia is a youth financial literacy expert who is passionate about giving young people the money management knowledge, skill and confidence they need to be successful. She has personally worked with thousands of students of all ages, with parents, and with teachers to take the mystery out of money.

Tricia is a frequent presenter at educational and advocacy forums including U of T, Rotman School of Management's Improving Financial Inclusion & Well Being [2015] and is the former head of CIBC's Youth Customer Segment.

Tricia's knowledge of personal finance, her hands-on experience teaching young people about money and her direct, plain language approach make her a sought after speaker and an invaluable resource for parents.
